

When taking on the nursing home industry...

You need a game changer.

When your clients suspect nursing home abuse or neglect, you need a battle-tested law firm with expertise in navigating the world of long-term care. Elder law firms entrust their referrals to Brown & Barron for nursing home cases throughout Maryland and Washington, D.C. because our attorneys and subject matter experts understand the complex set of rules that nursing homes must follow to ensure the well being of residents. When you choose Brown & Barron, you get a law firm with a reputation for professionalism, communication, and an aggressive approach that has delivered some of the largest settlements and verdicts in our practice areas. You also get a culture that ensures all clients feel valued – as evidenced by more than 100 five-star Google reviews.

Recent Case Highlights:

- Nursing Home Neglect: $600,000
- Nursing Home Fall: $500,000
- Nursing Home Fall: $325,000

“Brown & Barron have what we need when we seek out co-counsel: competence, integrity, and vast litigation experience. They are not afraid to take the case to trial. Brian and Leah have built an outstanding team and have produced outstanding results.”

~ Byron B. Warnken, Esq.
Managing Attorney

At Brown & Barron, you know your case is being managed by a professional with superior training and talent. Our attorneys are graduates of the most prestigious law schools and have been recognized with the profession's most distinguished honors. Our team includes former clerks at both trial and appellate levels, a past MAJ President, and an MAJ Trial Lawyer of the Year. Also, all of our attorneys have been named SuperLawyers or SuperLawyers Rising Stars.

Nursing home cases often present unique challenges when the victim is unable to relay the facts and nursing home management is unwilling. We ensure that our clients get the maximum financial settlement possible through our expertise with health care and nursing home requirements, medical science, and the methods necessary to establish negligence. That is why we have been able to recover more than $73 million for our clients since 2017.

